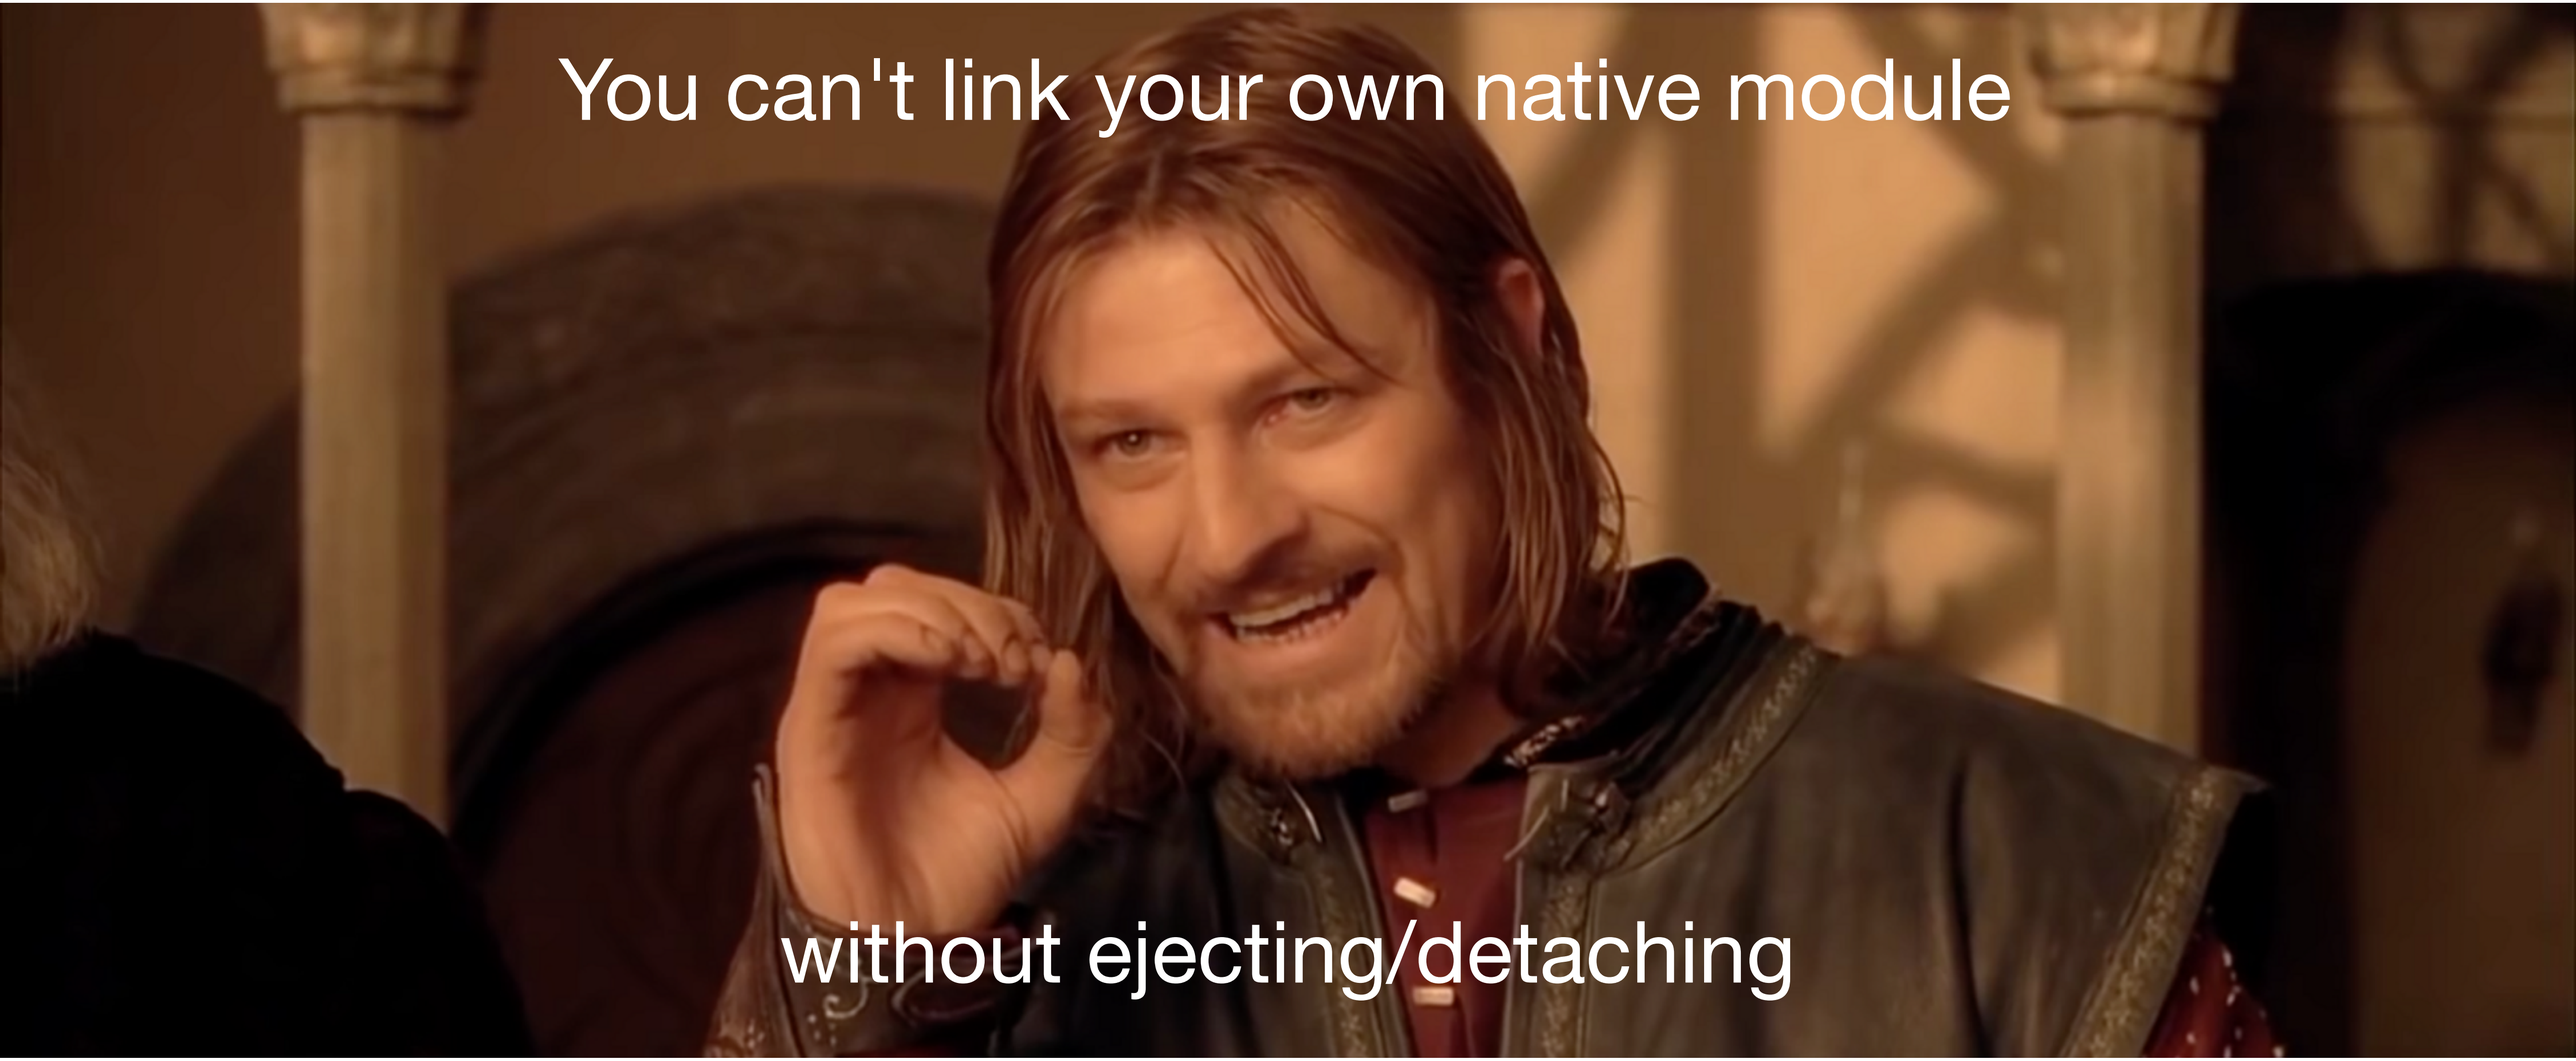
Depending on 3rd party service

- You depend on Expo and their infrastructure
- You may get 503 error when trying to send a push notification
- You may don't be able to deploy because their cloud deploy platform is down
- You may wait for an hour in a queue just to build the app
- Every build is about 20 minutes


You can't use your own native modules, at all